IN THE CLAIMS

Amend Claims 1 and 7, as follows:

Sub B17
a

1. (amended) A label having at least one tear-removable section and at least one permanent section, said removable section being defined by two or more discontinuities spaced apart on an edge of said label, said label being made from (a polymeric film that is uniaxially oriented in line with the direction of tear by stretching in one direction only,) and said discontinuities being located so that a line which is extended to connect said discontinuities is substantially perpendicular to the axis of orientation of said polymeric film.

Sub B27

7. (amended) A label having at least one tear-
